

2009 Idaho Commission for Libraries (ICFL) Contest Rules

A snazzy program title, concise description, and a few other details could make your library a star. Submit your Teen Read Week Program entry for the chance to win. You won't get any money, but up to 30 Flip Video cameras will be awarded. The Idaho library community will vote on their favorite submission.

Every library submitting a completed entry will receive branded key-chain ID wallets for Teen Read Week program participants. Good Luck!

Submit

1. The contest is open to all publicly-funded school and public libraries in Idaho.
2. Applicants may submit only one completed entry.
3. Entries will only be accepted using the online form from September 10 through September 30, 2009.
4. All programs must take place during Teen Read Week, October 18-24, 2009.
5. ICFL reserves the right to not post an entry for voting on the site. Applicants will be notified of the reason their entry is not posted for voting by the online community.

Vote

1. All entries will be posted for voting at the same time. Applicants may promote their posted entries to peers for voting at <http://libraries.idaho.gov/trw09>. Voting by the Idaho library community will be done via the ICFL webpage from October 1-8, 2009.
2. Voting is limited to one vote per valid email address.

Win!!

1. Winners will be announced on October 9, 2009.
2. Library programs receiving the most online votes will be acknowledged as the Flip Video camera recipients and will receive a Flip Video camera by October 16, 2009. No more than 30 Flip Video cameras will be awarded.
3. Flip Video camera recipients must post a brief video summary of the program and program highlights on YouTube or TeacherTube and provide the links to ICFL by October 30, 2009 for possible posting on the ICFL website. Every library submitting a completed entry will receive branded key-chain ID wallets for Teen Read Week program participants.
4. Video or picture media that includes persons younger than 18 must have signed parental or legal guardian permission. ICFL is not responsible for obtaining parental permission.
5. Winners affirm that the videos posted online will be in compliance with copyright and licensing laws.

Idaho Teen Read Week is brought to you by the Idaho Commission for Libraries and funded through the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) administered by the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS).
